

TWO INVITATIONS were received at the office recently which we opened, although we were somewhat hesitant about it.

They were not really directed to us.

Both were sent to PRESS CAMPBELL. (One was a little more formal than the other. It was to MR. Press Campbell.)

The invitations were both quite similar in content.

One cordially invited Mr. Press Campbell to join "a small gathering of your Neighborhood Residents" at one of the high-class bistros in the area for a "preview party", including a full course dinner, color film tour and "fun and prizes".

It was specified there was no cost or obligation.

It sounded quite intimate and cozy, even if, apparently, the idea was to introduce a new real estate development.

But there was a stickler in the invitation, so we did not reply within the two days that were requested.

It specified no children... and one married couple only.

Shucks, we didn't know if "Mr. Press Campbell" was even married.

And, what if he was? Maybe it wouldn't be convenient for Mrs. Press Campbell to go and not take the kids.

THE OTHER INVITE for good ol' Press was for another full course dinner and color film tour at a local dining establishment at no cost or obligation.

But again, "sorry no children and one married couple only."

And again we could not answer for "Press Campbell" because we don't know if "Press" is married or whether his wife, if he has one, would like the idea.

On the other hand, we probably should not have been so cautious about what Press' wife would like.

Most wives, it has been our experience, go for this eating out bit.

Even, if it means listening to a sales pitch about a new real estate development.

They might even listen without talking.

IN A RECENT AGENDA of the supervisors under "routine matters", four special "weeks" were listed to be proclaimed:

"Santa Clara County Dental Assistants Week."

"Workshop Workers Week."

"Invest in America Week."

"Santa Clara County Spring Clean-Up Week."

All of them are worthy of recognition, no doubt.

But we always wonder when such a large flock of "weeks" are specified at one time, if the value of the week is not weakened a bit.

But, you know something, there are more serious problems that in this day and age to be concerned about.

So what's wrong with a weak week now and then?

IN THE LAST ISSUE BEFORE the recent school trustee election, The Press did not endorse any of the candidates but published the pictures of the three incumbents of Moreland and Campbell elementary and Campbell High districts.

We understand that some people maintained that by publishing the photos this implied our endorsement of the incumbents. That was not the intent. But why let facts interfere with people's reasoning.

As a matter of fact, Neal Royer, Campbell elementary superintendent, was approached by an irate party who confronted Neal with a copy of The Press. He claimed that Neal was responsible for the implied endorsement (the

Hyde 'steps up' to mayor Monday

Following the one-year-term policy established in 1966, Councilman Homer Hyde, now serving as vice-mayor, is scheduled to be "promoted" to mayor at the City Council meeting next Monday, April 28.

Hyde will succeed the current mayor, Bill Smeed, who took office in April, 1968.

The Council on Monday is also expected to take action on the largest single street improvement project in the history of the city, involving portions of Hamilton, Bascom and Campbell avenues.

The project, estimated to cost more than $500,000, is part of the Local Improvement District No. 18 in which the city cooperates with the property owners and will include a new bridge on Hamilton (west of the Bascom intersection), the widening of Bascom to its ultimate from Hamilton to the city limits and the improvement of Campbell Ave. from Bascom to the freeway.

The Council is scheduled to call for bids on the job next Monday.

YES--WE ARE READY--Jerry Arca, Youth Employment Service (YES) chairman, goes over a folder of job applicants with Judy Ann Rothwell, newly appointed Youth Employment director who will be running the YES office in the Campbell Chamber of Commerce suite during the summer.

CHS senior heads youth job office

Youth Employment Service (YES) office is now set to screen youthful applicants for summer jobs with the selection of Judy Ann Rothwell, 17 year old Campbell High School senior to fill the position of youth director, according to Jerry Arca, committee chairman.

Judy will be at the Campbell Chamber of Commerce office manning the phone, files and employment inquiries in the afternoons from 3 to 5 p.m. starting April 28 until June 16 when hours will be from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m.

The daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ryland Hawks, 173 Carolyn Ave., Judy is a class representative, a member of the senior council and has been head flag girl.

She was picked from 12 applicants by a committee composed of Len Edholm, CofC manager; Betty Cunningham, West Valley College, work experience office; Dave Finch, attorney and Arca, Pacific Telephone office manager and chairman of the Youth Employment Service committee.

Judy plans to attend college in Palo Alto in the fall. Arca stated that the decor of the new employment office would be left up to Judy, and visualizes psychedelic colors, posters and other additions that might appeal to the young adults.

Today (Wednesday, April 23), the Campbell High School will be the scene of a "sign-up" as students register for work and list their qualifications. A telephone will be installed in the new office with a new number, 378-1666. All prospective employers are urged to call when they need help.

Car wash loses to planners

Planning Commission members Monday night denied the use permit application of Ira Brotzman that would allow a unique car wash operation (with two gas pumps) at Winchester Blvd. and Kennedy.

The commissioners indicated that the design of the novel operation was more attractive than a service station but that it still did not comply with the city's newly adopted outdoor business activity ordinance.

The applicant, however, through W. G. Francis, president of Robo Bay Cities, Inc., claimed that there was a "twi- (Continued on Page 2)

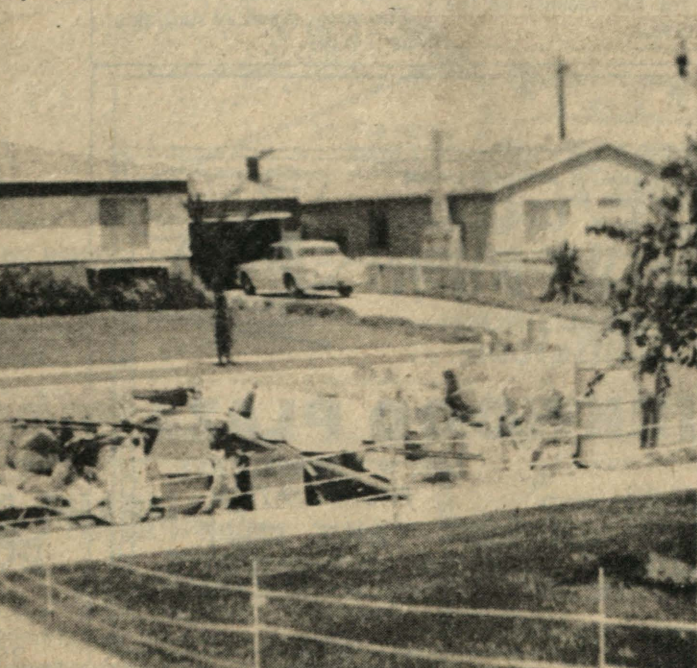

Trash pickup Friday

Free trash pickup service will be offered residents within the city limits of the City of Campbell this Friday, April 25.

Residents desiring to take advantage of this curbside service must place the trash on the curbs in front of their residences by 7 a.m. this Friday (April 25).

The trash must be in boxes or bundles that can be handled by one man. Trimmings must be bundled in four-foot lengths.

Green Valley Disposal Co., the firm that has the garbage and trash pickup franchise within the city limits, offers the curbside service twice each year as part of the franchise agreement with the city.

GETTING READY TO BOW--Phil Lobue is all set for the Campbell High School Spring

Concert Friday evening, April 25.

"Music for a Spring Night"

Campbell High presents spring concert Friday

"Music for a Spring Night" is the lovely theme chosen for the Campbell High School spring concert to be held Friday evening, April 25 at 8 o'clock.

The concert featuring the string orchestra, symphonic orchestra, a capella choir and the symphonic band, will be held in the school auditorium.

The string orchestra will present Eine Kleine Nacht music by Mozart and will be directed by Earl Smith, who will also direct the choir in "Sweet Day" by R. Vaughn Williams. The symphonic orchestra selections will include the Egmont Overture by Beethoven while the symphonic band will play the Overture in B Flat.

One of the features of the concert will be a presentation of "Exodus" as arranged by the students in the music theory class.

Soloists for the evening will be Joanne Jacovides on the violin; Perry Roger on the trombone; and Dale Little on the alto saxophone. A violin duet, "Concerto for Two Violins", will be played by Shirley Hennessey and Joanne Jacovides.

A brass quartet will play the Concerto Grosso featuring Kevin Marcyes, trumpet; Judy Stewart, trumpet; Mike Walsh, trumpet and Ken Kayser on the baritone horn. The band will be directed by William Perkins.

The refreshments will be served after the concert in the music building. Student body card holders and children under 12 will be admitted free with $1 donation for adults.

FORMER LITTLE LEAGUER--Craig Morton, quarterback for the Dallas Cowboys professional football team, has grown some since he used to play Little League baseball in Campbell. He will be on hand this Saturday for the Little League opening ceremony.

Grid star to be present

Little League opens season this Saturday

Campbell Little League opens the 1969 season at the Rosemary Field on Saturday, April 26. A former Campbell Little Leaguer who became an All-American football star and is now the quarterback for the Dallas Cowboys professional football team, will be guest of honor at the opening ceremonies starting at 9 a.m.

Craig Morton, who starred on both the baseball and football teams at Campbell High and then won All-American honors at the University of California, will participate in the program.

Also scheduled to be present is Don Larson, who won a New York Yankee pitch, the only perfect game in World Series history (in 1957 against the former Brooklyn Dodgers).

Morton, who played in the Campbell Little League, more than 13 years ago, is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Ken Morton, of Campbell. The elder Morton was also one of the adult leaders in local Little League circles.

Father John Lally, of St. Lucy's, will give the invocation. Other guests at the ceremonies will be Neal Royer, superintendent of the elementary schools and president of the Chamber of Commerce;

Police Chief John Morgan and Fire Chief George Maxwell.

More than 450 boys are involved in the Campbell Little League program this year which consists of eight major league teams, eight minors and eight peeewees.

Following the opening ceremonies four regularly scheduled league games will be played on Saturday.

The Moose Lodge and Fontanetti's will play the opener at 10 a.m. followed by Campbell Plaza vs. Asquith; Campbell Lumber vs. Breuner's and Buckholtz vs. Robins.

Lou Ferreri is president of the league, Joe McGrody, vice-president, Bill McLain, treasurer and Bob Holman, league director.

In Campbell elementary district

One incumbent board member loses seat

In school board elections in the area in which the registered voters stayed away from the polls by the thousands, incumbent trustees, except for one seat on the Campbell elementary board, withstood their challengers handily.

In the Campbell Union (elementary) District, Ralph Steinberg, of 144 W. Rosemary Lane, Campbell, a San Jose attorney, received 1325 votes and edged out the incumbent, George L. Talley, who polled 1209 votes, for the third position that was up for grabs.

The other two incumbents, Eleanor Graham-Armstrong with 1754 votes and John M. Merriell with 1786 retained their offices.

Joan D. Franks tallied 583; Robert A. Stewart, 581 and Alan W. Alexander, 491. Only nine per cent of the registered voters in the Campbell district cast ballots in the election.

Dorothy Goble with 4,562 led the three incumbents who were reelected in the Campbell Union High School District. Frank Bonanno received 4,472 and Vernon R. Rutlen 4,055.

Votes for the other candidates in the race were: Carl T. Merriman, 1,872; E. (Charlie) Cole, 1,391; Berkeley Miller, 1,173; Harold C. Gluth, 1,115 and Albert J. Addy, 792.

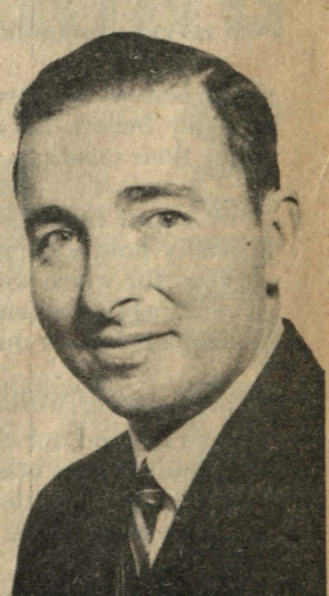

In the Moreland District, Eugene J. Riordan collected 874 votes; Donald D. Cooley, 867 and John A. Hibbert, 773, and were reelected.

Other tallies: Rita Rose, 601; Hermilo R. Gloria, 311; John M. Atthowe, Jr., 289; Paul M. Bradley, 255; Jefferson F. Beardsley, 191; James A. Mariani, 131 and Jacob Carlin, 121.

There was only one candidate, C. B. (Sonny) Towner, in addition to the three incumbents, Virginia Grewohl (909); Jack M. Farnham (869) and John H. Shehtanian, Jr. (806). Towner polled 510 votes.

WINNER--Ralph J. Steinberg, of 144 Rosemary Lane, Campbell, a San Jose attorney and president of the Rosemary Home and School Club, unseated George L. Talley, incumbent, for trustee of the Campbell Union (elementary) School District board in the April 15 election.

Editorial

Only nine per cent

Countless editorials have appeared concerning the apathy of the electorate in the various school elections.

But the message never seems to get through. Here we go again.

The turnout at the polls in the school trustee elections continues to be disgraceful.

But we feel certain that the recent trustee election for the Campbell Union (elementary) School District surely must have set a record for an all-time low.

Only 2,755 voters bothered to go to the polls in that election out of a total registered voters of 29,990!

That works out as 9.18 per cent.

We ask you, isn't that a sad commentary on the whole educational picture?

There is nothing in this wide, wide world of ours that is of more importance to this country's future than the proper education of the young people.

It is the schools that mold the young people today almost as much as does the home.

And the sad part of it is that probably never in the history of our country has there been so much student unrest.

Yet in the Campbell elementary school district 90 per cent of the registered voters did not show enough interest in who would be trustees to even bother to go to the polls.

We think we are fortunate in the Campbell district that we have top-notch educators and excellent trustees directing it.

It is our considered opinion that the administration of the Campbell school district is outstanding.

We suppose, then, it could be argued that the lack of interest on election day is a back-handed commendation for a well-run district.

But that is not the point.

And we are certain that Neal Royer and his administration staff and the trustees themselves do not prefer this apathetic attitude on the part of the citizens to that of a more representative participation.

We are not arguing that there should be a dog-eat-dog campaign every time there is a school trustee election.

There is nothing wrong in giving the incumbents a vote of confidence, if the school district is operating properly.

Or is there anything wrong in replacing an incumbent at the polls.

That is the way this country operates. And we think it is great.

What we are concerned about is simply that nine per cent of the voters in no way can possibly reflect how the people as a whole in the district feel about the school situation.

Let us emphasize that we are not finding fault with the election results.

True we voted for the three incumbents, Eleanor Graham-Armstrong, John Merriell and George Talley. Two of the three were elected.

But the trustee who was elected in place of Talley, Ralph Steinberg, is well qualified to serve as a trustee.

The district is in good hands.

There will be those then who will ask, if we are satisfied with the results, what are we hollering about?

In other words, they will submit that, if 90 per cent voted instead of nine per cent and the results were the same, what difference does it make.

It makes a lot of difference in our book.

We believe in exercising our voting franchise. We sincerely believe that everyone should put their ballot where their mouth is.

We admit being prejudiced about the matter. We probably hold some sort of record for voting in every election for which we were eligible, starting hundreds of years ago (it seems) when the first time we voted we cast a ballot for ourself.

Even during World War II when, due to circumstances beyond our control, we traveled a lot both in this country and other spots of the world, we conscientiously submitted absentee ballots back to the place we started from.

Therefore, it bothers us personally when in an election that is important to the welfare of the community, only nine per cent trotted to the polling booths.

We are well aware that this editorial will not result in a bigger turnout at the next election.

But at least you know what our stand is about voting. Or not voting.

Another person also came in at almost the same time carrying a copy of another newspaper which circulates in the area and in which candidates of all the districts were actually endorsed.

He thought Neal was responsible for those endorsements.

Neal enjoyed the confrontation.

With both of the parties in his office at the same time it showed how ridiculous their accusations really were.

Admittedly Neal is a man of many talents.

But it is obvious that he is not involved in editing the various newspapers in the area.

The poor guy has enough problems with running the school district.

There are times, of course, when we would be happy to turn this operation to Royer.

Or to anyone, for that matter.

But then again, Neal probably feels the same way about his job at times.

What else is new?

POLICE CHIEF JOHN Morgan picked us up the other day.

BUT it was not for any violation that he knew about anyway.

We were standing on the street corner with the camera in our hot little hand when John came by.

He invited us to go with him in answer to a call that had just come in.

It had been reported that a dead body had been found at The Prune Yard!

We jumped in with camera at the ready.

BUT there was no body around.

Apparently it was one of those calls from a party with a warped sense of values.

But we had a nice ride.

A NICE NOTE ARRIVED this week from the new assistant manager of the Menlo Park branch of the Bank of America.

For the benefit of those who tuned in late, Don Kennedy, who was manager of the Campbell Ave. BofA branch for three years, was promoted to the Menlo Park position by the nation's largest banking institution.

Don was slated to become president of the CoFC and the Rotary Club here in Campbell next year which gives some indication of the esteem he was held by the people in this town.

DON'S NOTE TO US WAS personal but there were a couple of paragraphs in it that we are sure Kennedy won't mind, if we would share them with you.

We quote:

"...During the last three years I have met so many fine people, and made many new friends. As one person told me on my arrival in Campbell 'there aren't any snobs in this city'."

"I found out he was right. Working with people of Campbell proved to be a very rewarding experience.

"Campbell appears to me to be an up and coming city. So many things appear to be on the horizon and almost within grasp. It seems to me I am leaving just when things are really starting to happen..."

Don also added a couple of comments about your editor's activities and how pleased he was personally that the Jay

FLAG NEEDED

A flag and flagpole are desperately needed by the Campbell-Moreland Pony League for their opening day ceremony at Rincon Park on May 10, according to Chuck Cannady, director of the league.

Service organizations willing to contribute the flag and about a 30 foot flagpole are requested to contact Cannady during the evening at 374-0986.

Pittsburgh Des-Moines Steel, is the developer of "The Prune Yard" shopping center and "The Towers", the 18-story office building now in the process of construction on the 34-acre parcel at Bascom and Campbell.

The City Council is also scheduled to adopt a resolution proclaiming May 2 as "Laurance J. Hill Day" in honor of Hill who is retiring as superintendent of the Campbell Union High School District on June 30 after 22 years of service to the district.

Hill is to be honored that evening (May 2) at a community dinner at Lou's Village when hundreds of his fellow citizens are expected to attend to pay their respects to the retiring educator.

One item on the agenda that is expected to cause some eye-brow raising concerns the appeal of Woods Mattingly from the $100 per day license fee he is being charged for conducting what is alleged to be an oculist service in his home.

On the agenda also is the request of the flood control district that the city pay for decorative lights on the new Lower Page Dam which has been constructed by the flood control district at Camden Ave. The district will install the lines but wants the city to put in and pay for the lights as a beautification project for the city.

Based on the action of the Planning Commission Monday night, the City Council is expected to act on the matter of designating Camden Ave., as a street on which a mobile home park can be located.

This is a necessary step under city regulations before the request for the mobile home park submitted by Leo Freschi and involving Western Gravel property can be acted on by the Planning Commission.

Mobile home parks can only be located on specified streets within the city limits and Camden Ave. at present is not one of the streets.

On the agenda also is the official notification by letter by the Bay Area Pollution Control District that after Jan. 1, 1970 all backyard burning will be prohibited.

The Citizens Beautification Committee is scheduled on Monday to request the City Council to designate the "Shasta Daisy" as the city's official flower.

Cees presented us with a plaque for "outstanding journalism dedicated to community progress".

Our self-imposed modesty keeps us from repeating some of the nice things Don mentioned about us keeping the citizens of Campbell informed and helping Campbell get on the move.

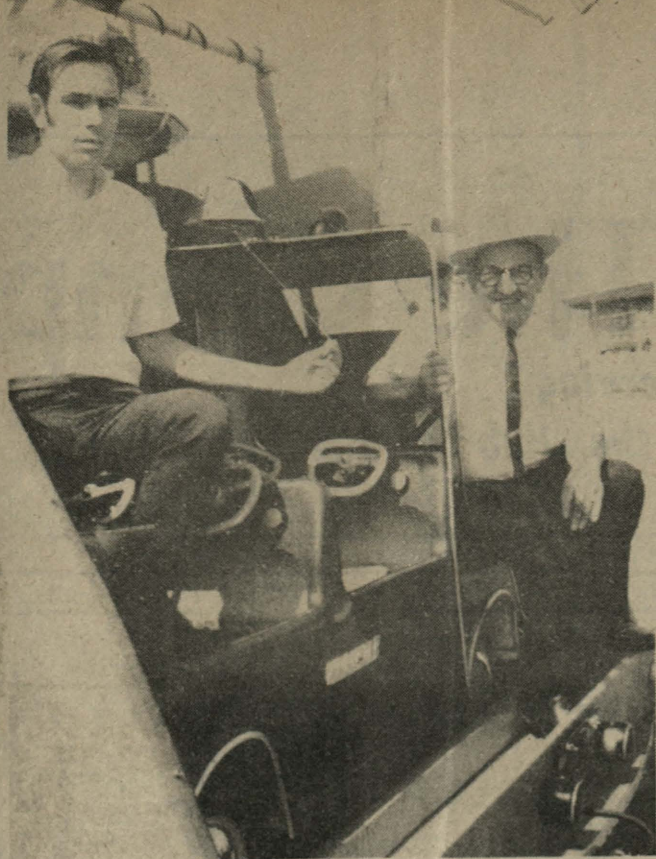

One of his comments, however, you might enjoy: "...I even suspect you may have created a little controversy in order to arouse interest in a project or a problem..."

And his conclusion: "Keep up the good work - the citizens of Campbell need you."

A letter like that really does make a guy try a little harder.

THAT REMINDS US... We haven't mentioned for some time that the walnut tree plot at the railroad tracks should be named "Ainsley Park".

light zone" involved, because the application had been made prior to the ordinance becoming law.

He described the car wash as a semi-automatic operation and that there were already 1400 similar operations in the county.

Plans for three warehouses (Oliver H. Nelson; 520 Mc Glincey; R. C. Cloud, 3000 Winchester and Western Gravel, east of Camden and the railroad tracks) received the speedy approval of the Commission, as did the request of C. Longiotti for a metal awning for the Cherrio Market at 2220 Winchester and Breuner's for a small expansion.

The Commissioners granted the zone change request for Stanley Becker (from M-2-S to C-3-S) for the old Sun-sweet warehouse on S. Central.

They commended Becker for his vision and imagination in his plans for converting the structure.

Becker explained that he desired to leave the exterior as it is but would transform the interior into plush restaurants and art galleries.

The Commission took no action on the application of Leo Freschi for a use permit to allow a mobile home park within the high creek bank area east of Camden Ave. but with frontage from the property located at 870 Camden Ave.

Camden Ave. first, it was explained, had to be designated as a street on which mobile home parks can be located.

Then by a 3-2 vote (Frank Klein and Merrill Grim opposing and Thayer Lyons, Dale Scott and Ed Pack favoring) the Commission recommended by resolution to the City Council that Camden be so designated.

The Commission at the close of the meeting formally named Ed Pack as chairman and Merrill Grim, vice-chairman.

Kel Young, former chairman, recently resigned. The Council is now seeking applicants for the vacancy on the commission.

CoFC meets at lunch Thursday

Youth Employment Service (YES), a project of the Campbell Chamber of Commerce with Jerry Arca as chairman will feature the monthly CoFC luncheon meeting this Thursday, April 24, at the Sveden House.

Another guest at the luncheon will be George Benson, an Indianapolis race driver, who is getting ready to journey to that famous track for the Memorial Day classic.

Country Woman's Club places in District

The Country Woman's Club of Campbell received several awards at the California Federation of Women's Clubs, Loma Prieta District annual awards luncheon held recently in the Hyatt House in San Jose.

In the Historical Landmark category, Mrs. J. Don Howland received first place in the art section with her picture entitled "The Old Church of Mission San Jose". A water color, the picture was painted on location and is located 15 miles north of San Jose on the Old Oakland Road.

The club also received an award in "Diversity of Art Activities" and a beautiful tion award for outstanding work in helping establish the new mini-park in Campbell known as the Joseph V. Gomes park, located at the corner of Alice and Campbell Avenues.

A membership increase award was also presented to the club in competition with medium size clubs in the district. Members of the club had prepared the decorations for the District meeting, and it was felt that they were so appropriate that a request was made that they be used again at the State Board meeting at Monterey in October.

PLACES FIRST—Mrs. Judy Howland holds the water color "The Old Church of Mission San Jose" which placed first in the California Federation of Women's Clubs, Loma Prieta District art contest.

A WILLING WORKER—Mrs. Agnes Katzer was one of the many committee women working to make the St. Lucy's Altar Society salad lunch a huge success last week. Kennelly Hall was the scene of the luncheon which was attended by nearly 200 women. The tables were appropriately set with cleverly made carettas symbolizing the carts used by the early Padres in bringing supplies to the first California missions. The carettas were carrying tiny ears of corn, fruits and nuts representing the cuttings brought by the fathers to the rich Santa Clara land.

Auxiliary tea marks fifth anniversary

Campbell Community Hospital personnel were guests at a tea given recently at the hospital by the Campbell Community Hospital auxiliary in observance of the fifth anniversary of the auxiliary founding.

The hospital conference room was beautifully decorated with yellow and white flowers, with a basket filled with yellow daisies on the fireplace mantle.

The lace covered tea table was enhanced by the beautiful silver tea service which was presented to the Auxiliary by the hospital a year ago, with a flower candelabra completing the picture.

White stock with heather flower arrangements were also used to carry out the decor.

Auxiliary guests included all of the hospital personnel with special guests being Mr. and Mrs. Sam Frank. Frank is in the new administrator of the hospital, having recently been appointed following the resignation of Elton Admire.

Presiding at the tea table were Mrs. Eric Schramm, president; assisted by Mrs. James Malone, and Mrs. James Gillespie, auxiliary officers.

BREAKFAST

The Orchard City Grange No. 333 will hold their regular monthly breakfast on Sunday, April 27 from 9 a.m. to 2 p.m. Breakfast will be served in the Grange Hall, 109 N. First Street, Campbell. The public is invited to attend.

LOVELY SALADS—Mrs. Joseph Aversente, chairman for the St. Lucy's Altar Society salad lunch, stands before one of the generously loaded salad tables just before luncheon was served, while in the lower photo Mrs. Deena Allison was the lucky lady winning the miniature cable car at the St. Lucy's Altar Society salad lunch. Handing her the prize is young Dennis Patrick Small.

PTA NEWS

SAN TOMAS

Saturday, May 3, San Tomas School yard will be turned into a carnival midway. The last carnival was such a great success, San Tomas PTA decided to hold another—bigger and better than last year's.

As the main attraction Hocus Pocus will present three shows during the day, in the school cafeteria, at 1, 1:30 and 2 p.m.

For more than 30 years Hokey has been entertaining and making children laugh. He came to Santa Clara Valley over 15 years ago from Southern California, where he was known as Carl Hansen, stunt man in the movies.

Now as "Hocus Pocus" he is at his best in the middle of a group of children making them laugh and delighting them with his bagful of magic tricks, playing games with them and having a lot of fun.

In addition to Hocus Pocus other special attractions will be food concessions, pony rides, cakewalk, Wheel of Fortune, fish pool and stagecoach ride. An old fashioned country store will be opened with many items for sale.

San Tomas School is located at Abbott and Hacienda Avenues in Campbell. Gates will be open from 10 a.m. to 5 p.m.

BREAKFAST

The Orchard City Grange No. 333 will hold their regular monthly breakfast on Sunday, April 27 from 9 a.m. to 2 p.m. Breakfast will be served in the Grange Hall, 109 N. First Street, Campbell. The public is invited to attend.

AT LUNCHEON

Among the many guests attending the St. Lucy's Altar Society wine tasting luncheon were Mr. and Mrs. John L. Ginger from Southerland, Iowa, who were planning returning home shortly. They have been visiting with their son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Norbert Weslow, at 98 N. Carlyn Ave.

Moreland observes Public Schools week

An open house will be held tonight, April 23, at the Gussie M. Baker Elementary School at 4845 Bucknall Rd., in recognition of Public School Week. The school will be open from 7 to 8:30 p.m. with the entire public invited to attend.

The classrooms have been prepared by the teachers and students to exhibit to the attending public the efforts, interests, and projects of the school. "Special guides" have been assigned to help guide parents, friends and general public through the rooms.

The upper classes will be conducting experiments and exhibiting projects during the tours of the rooms so that the public can further realize the educational program of the school.

The entire public is invited to attend and inspect the educational advancements of the school. Prospective Kindergarten students accompanied by their parents, will be welcome to come and get acquainted with their future school.

O.E.S.

Campbell Chapter No. 553, Order of the Eastern Star, will hold their spring festival meeting on April 25 at the IOOF Hall, 276 E. Campbell Ave.

Initiation of new members will be held, and the officers will all be gowned in white for the ceremony. Presiding will be Mrs. Karol Lake, Worthy Matron and Marcus Great-house, Worthy Patron.

Mrs. Lorene Van Sickle will be the hostess and chairman for the evening with Frank Johnson as host.

Recent wedding unites couple

MR. AND MRS. EDWARD NORTHUP II

Lynnette K. Evans made a demure picture in a floor length dotted swiss wedding gown as she went down the aisle of the First Congregational Church of San Jose to meet her bridegroom, Edward Stanton Northup II.

The lovely gown was made by the brides mother, Mrs. William Evans, who also made all of the attendants gowns. Tiny embroidered flowers seeded with pearls surrounded the neck and short puff sleeves and a floor length blue satin sash. A half cap covered with flowers held her veil of dotted swiss and was tied with blue ribbon. The lovely brunette bride carried a bouquet of stephanotis surrounding one large orchid tied with matching blue ribbon.

The new Mrs. Northup II is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Evans, 1310 Antonio Lane. A graduate of Campbell High School, she was a flag girl in her junior and senior years. She is now employed with a credit bureau and also attending West Valley College where she is a liberal arts major.

Mrs. Evans wore a light blue dress and a picture hat complimented with a white orchid corsage for her daughter's wedding.

Mrs. Vickie Phillips served her friend as matron of honor with Cheryl Stuersel, Candi Turci and Gina Evans as bridesmaids. The attendants all wore identical sleeveless gowns of blue and white stripes with white organza sashes and bow in the back. Vickie carried a cascade of daisies while the bridesmaids bouquets were identical daisy nosegays.

Edward is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Stanton Northup of 96 La Vonne Drive in Campbell. He was graduated from Campbell High School in 1966 and is now a pre-med student at Santa Clara University. He is employed at the Cloverdale Cabana Club.

For the occasion Mrs. Northup wore a matching cream colored coat and dress with a white orchid corsage.

Charles Edelman stood with Edward as best man with Barry Laing, Paul Wagner II and Clark Evans ushering.

Following the ceremony the newly-weds greeted their guests in the Church Fellowship Hall where they cut their four-tiered wedding cake. Mr. and Mrs. Northup are now making their home in San Jose following a wedding trip to Monterey.

Open house features fashion show

In its celebration of Public Schools Week, Campbell High School will have open-house tonight, April 23, during the regular PTA meeting. From 7:30 p.m. to 8:30 p.m. the following rooms will be open for parent inspection: all science classrooms—including biology, chemistry, physics, general & applied science, industrial arts, fine arts, language laboratory, and photography laboratory.

At 8:30, parents will be entertained in the Campbell High School Cafeteria by a fashion show of clothes made as classroom projects by the modeling students. During the fashion show, home economics students will serve refreshments they have especially prepared at school for the occasion.

Thursday noon, April 24, the Campbell High School PTA board members will serve their annual "Faculty Appreciation Luncheon" to the Campbell High School teaching staff.

On Friday evening, May 9, the Campbell High School PTA members will sell refreshments during intermission of the drama and music department's spring variety show. Proceeds from the sale will go to the Campbell High School PTA's college scholarship fund program.

CHILI SUPPER

Those who like chili will have a chance to eat their fill at the chili supper being sponsored by the First United Methodist Church Senior M. Y.I.F. on April 29. Chili, salad, french bread and dessert will be served from 5:30 to 7:30 p.m. in the church Fellowship Hall.

New Books at the CAMPBELL LIBRARY

BLINDNESS (28 minutes, B&W)
A study of one man's adjustment to blindness, and the role of community agencies in offering rehabilitation training which enables him to lead an ordinary life with his job, home and family.

CIVIL RIGHTS MOVEMENT: NORTH (23 Minutes, B&W)
The film opens with newsreel scenes taken in Chicago when Negroes moved into a white area, illustrating the tension characterizing race relations in the North. Other sources of Negro discontent are also documented.

CIVIL RIGHTS MOVEMENT: SOUTH (28 minutes, B&W)
The film examines the forces that combined, after the Supreme Court's desegregation decision, to ignite the civil rights movement in the South. Clips are shown that illustrate representative movements in the history of the protest.

FASHION ODYSSEY (14 minutes, COLOR)
Maid of Cotton, Malinda Berry's tour around the world in 1959. Lovely cotton fashions combined with sightseeing in London, Athens, Pakistan, Bombay, Japan, Hong Kong, Australia, Hawaii. Colorful and varied.

West Valley Sports

SWIM MEET WINNER--Ray Rivero, West Valley College swimming sensation, poses in starting position prior to the Saturday afternoon competition in the Camino Norte championships at the Vikes new Saratoga home. Rivero placed first in the 100 and 200 back and the 200 individual medley.

RELAY
Mike Toler, after loafing to a win in the 400 intermediate hurdles, led the West Valley mile relay team to a surprise win over DeAnza last Saturday. The Dons held enough of a lead, however, to win the meet by a 90-46 margin.

SWIM MEET
Ray Rivero, West Valley College freshman swimming sensation, proved to be the star of the recent Camino Norte Conference championships at the Vikes Saratoga pool as he picked up three individual wins. The DeAnza Dons took the team title with 161 points while WVC finished second with 132.
Rivero won the 200 yard individual medley, the 200 back, and the 100 back. Mike Castellano won the 1,650 free and Glen Schanck took the 400 IM for WVC.

SUMMER BASKETBALL
For the second consecutive year, West Valley College will be offering a summer basketball league for junior college age men. The league will begin on June 17 at the Campbell High School gym. Further information can be obtained by contacting Coach Larry Jennings at WVC.

BASEBALL
The West Valley baseballers broke the .500 barrier as they took both ends of a double-header from Solano last weekend to push their Camino Norte Conference record to 8-6. Lou Gasper was the first game's top hitter at three for five and Larry Ray led batsmen in the second going four for four. WVC won 8-3 and 5-1.
WVC will journey to Contra Costa to take on the unpredictable team of the CNC Thursday.

QUITO LEAGUE OPENS SATURDAY
On Saturday, April 26, at 11:30 a.m. Quito Little League will open another season. Opening day ceremonies will take place at the baseball complex at Abbott and Pollard Rd.

TENNIS MATCH
After outscoring Contra Costa 6-1 last week, the West Valley racquetmen will invade the north county courts to challenge the same cellar-dwellers Wednesday. Tomorrow the Vikes will finish out their CNC season at DeAnza.

The flag raising will be done by Nicky Kavan of the Pirates. President Mike Donahue will introduce all the teams and their sponsors. At 1 p.m. the first game of the season will take place featuring the Phillies and the Indians.
The concession stand will be open all day. Everyone is cordially invited to attend.

DeMolay to serve breakfast

The Order of DeMolay, Los Gatos, will sponsor a Pancake Breakfast April 27 from 8 a.m. to 1 p.m. at the Masonic Temple, 131 E. Main Street, Los Gatos.

Tom Jefferies, Ways and Means committee chairman, will be in charge of the affair. The breakfast will be a follow-up for the rummage sale which will be held by the DeMolay in Campbell April 24, 25 and 26 at 342 E. Campbell Ave.

Del Mar

By Molly Ford and Janice Hallyburton

Paula Greene and Bruce Posey were recently chosen by Principal George Miskulin, to represent Del Mar this summer at Girl's and Boy's State. The entire purpose of Girl's and Boy's State is to help give young people - the top representatives of their high schools - an understanding of the structure and the workings of their government.

In late March a team consisting of Mike Gebetsberger, Marlin Shaw, James Morales and Tom Atkin, all from the Del Mar chapter of the FFA, took a second place in a Santa Clara Sectional Parliamentary Procedures contest.

A parent and son award banquet to be held May 15 in the Del Mar Cafeteria, will be the Future Farmers big event of the year. An estimated 180 people and numerous special guests are expected to attend.

The annual Interact Convention, held in Fortuna,

California, was host to six delegates from Del Mar. Attending were: Jeff Haugaard, Debby Dorman, Ed Yager, Ann Hemmings, Kathy Price, and Mark Kovaleski.

The convention, which lasted three days, March 21, 22 and 23, was to promote better communication, discuss proposed work projects and elect their new governor. Del Mar's Interact Club is sponsoring the Hootenanny to be held April 25 in the Del Mar cafeteria.

Del Mar's Key Club is sponsoring a car rallye for April 27. Registration will begin Sunday at 10 a.m. and end at 2 p.m. The cost is $3 with profits going to the Freedom for Hungary Foundation to feed underprivileged children. Anyone may participate and a total of 12 trophies will be awarded in the three categories, which are: All Around, High School Age, and Key Club.

PANCAKE BREAKFAST

The sophomore class at Del Mar High School will sponsor a pancake breakfast at the Del Mar Cafeteria Sunday, April 27 from 8 a.m. to 2 p.m. John Fischer is president of the class.

Camden Chatter

"Traces of Love", with an elegant atmosphere, is the theme of this year's Junior Prom to be held May 10, from 9 to 12 p.m. Music for the juniors and honored seniors will be provided by the "Knight Trippers", according to Sandy Kemp, music chairman.

This is the first time the prom will be held on a Saturday and is expected to influence the turnout, upon which the success of the prom is dependent.

Juniors have been busily planning for the affair with Joy Naud in charge of bids and publicity, Tim Wood as refreshment chairman and Joe Gutierrez mastering the decorations.

CSF and Honor Society students will be enjoying a day at the beach on Saturday, April 26. Buses will leave Camden at 9 a.m. and return approximately 10 p.m.

Students who plan to go are invited to sign-up to bring salads, drinks, chips, napkins, desserts, etc. Hot dogs, hamburgers, buns and transportation will be provided by the Scholarship Commission.

An all-school paper drive is coming up soon. Although the exact date isn't set yet, it is expected to be around April 25.

Student Council is attempting to get the house of representatives to organize the affair. According to Robin Hirano, there is a possibility of class competition. The winning class would receive a share of the money.

Prospect Pulse

By Pat Hebard

The final state qualifications Individual Events Tournament was held last Saturday at San Jose City College. Senior Martin Hesky qualified from Prospect with his oratorical analysis. It was also announced that Prospect's speech coach, Miss Lee Cunningham, was elected Forensic League President for next year. All in all, Prospect placed fourth in sweepstakes.

The "Spring Concert" was presented last Friday night to the public. It was directed by Mr. Wyant, band leader. A reception was held afterwards for the concert band members and the audience. The program included a variety of songs from Michelle to Toccatto.

There will be a dance this Friday featuring the "Ark" at Prospect. The cost is 25 cents for student body card holders and $1 for guests. The affair will begin at 8.

Open House was last night. Each educational department displayed the benefits of the courses. The English department featured the speech team while the Girls' Sports class featured its Gymnastics team.

The Science department presented an experiment for the visitors concerning chick embryology. The music department stole the show with its minstrel band and chorus that traveled through the halls and the orchestra that played in the quad.

The evening gave parents and visitors a chance to see what Prospect has to offer the students and how much the students must learn.

Girls' Sports will be traveling to Blackford's baseball diamond tomorrow. Three teams will meet the Braves. Softball is coached by Miss Donna Van Pelt. Track is coached by Miss Pace and badminton by Miss Edna Avila. Softball manager is Joanne Padgett, track manager is Mary Nelson and badminton Pam Peterson.

Honor Society has decided on three movies for the students to choose from on their trip to San Francisco. They are Oliver, Ben Hur and Sweet Charity. The trip will be May 14.

INVEST-IN-AMERICA WEEK—April 27-May 3

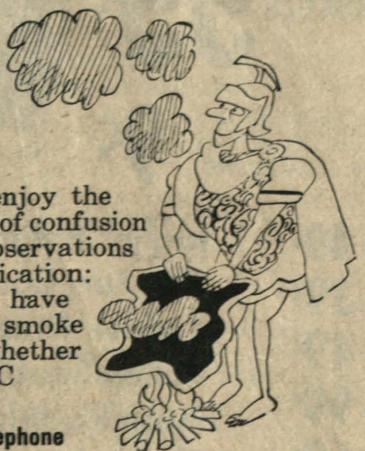

The Invest-in-America Council advises "Your savings and investments mean money at work for greater economic growth."

Here's a reminder on what to do if you should ever receive an obscene or malicious call: Simply hang up. This deprives the annoyance caller of the main thing he wants—an audience.

If such calls continue, however, please notify our Business Office. We have specially trained personnel to help handle these problems. With the aid of modern electronic detection devices, many of these callers have been identified. And through law enforcement agencies many cases have resulted in arrests and convictions. We want to do all we can to protect your privacy.

Don't miss the Bell System's TV Special, "A Look on the Light Side," Saturday, April 26 at 7:30 p.m. on NBC. It's a fast-moving musical venture that takes you on an unexpected travel tour around the country. Check your local TV listings for the channel.

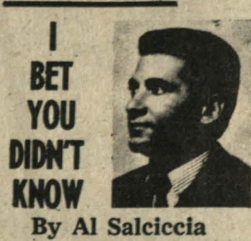

I thought you'd enjoy the following delightful bit of confusion from a school child's observations on early-day communication: "The Romans did not have telephones. They used smoke signals, but I forget whether they did it in AC or DC times."

SPORTS FANS!

By Al Saliccia

Whenever you think about men overcoming handicaps, did you know that men with only one arm played big league baseball, and big-time football, too! ...Back in 1945, outfielder Pete Gray, who had only one arm, played in 77 American League games for the St. Louis Browns... And, Ellis Jones, who had only one arm, was a star on the highly ranked Tulsa football teams of the early 1940s, and in fact, played in three bowl games, the Sugar Bowls of 1943-44 and the Orange Bowl of 1945!

Ever wonder how many golf courses there are now in the U.S.? ... Answer is approximately 10,000 ... And there are now about 10-million people who play golf ... So, that figures out to an average of about one golf course for every 1,000 golfers in America today.

West Valley Colt League sign-up starts

The West Valley Colt League will open its 1969 program of baseball for 15 and 16 year old boys during the month of May. The league plans to expand to ten teams and, with the entry of teams from Branham and Prospect, will have a representative from each member school within the West Valley League.

Player signups will be conducted the mornings of May 10 and 17 with tryouts scheduled for May 24, all at the individual school diamonds. Opening day of league play will be Thursday, May 29.

Pat Williams, president of the WVCL, indicates that several opportunities for team sponsorship still exist. Area firms, parents and boys interested in supporting the program are encouraged to contact Williams at 377-7859. Questions regarding player eligibility should be referred to Larry Mullins at 243-0893.

How to be your own boss class now open

An all-encompassing program designed to find all the answers for the prospective or present small businessman is presently being offered at Camden High School, 2075 Camden Ave., Tuesday evenings at 7 p.m.

Offered by Metropolitan Adult Education, the class, called "Small Business Operation", is co-sponsored by the Small Business Administration and the National Council for Small Business Management Development.

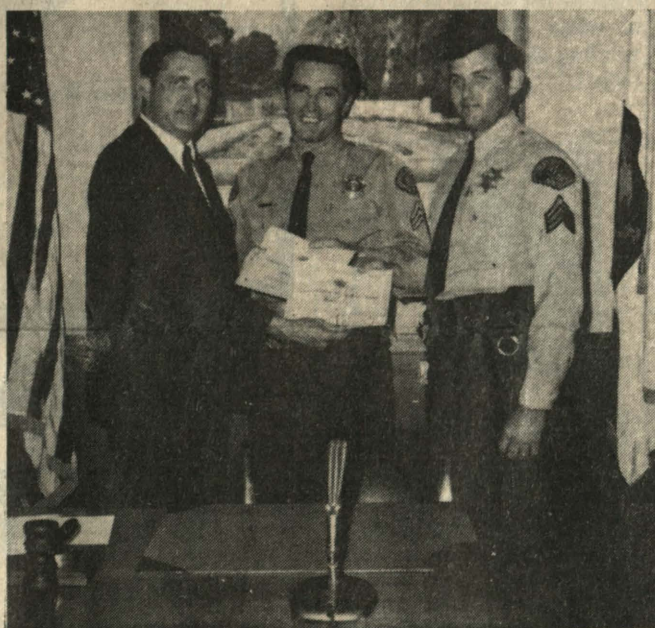

Registration for the class may be made at Camden Tuesday evening or by calling 379-8550. The office for Campbell is located at 124 Latimer Ave.

tional Church in Sacramento, where he is also Chaplain of the State Senate.

Bennett Hall, an activity and youth center on the church campus, was erected in memory of the late Rev. Joseph H. Bennett, for many years pastor (1922-1945) and founder of the Cub Scouts in America.

Presently the church is in the first stage of a new building project to complete the church plant as designed by Gifford Sobey. A fellowship hall, new kitchen facilities and six classrooms are contemplated for the full project.

The present congregation has 436 members, 340 participating families and a church school of 150 students. Rev. Myers came to the church in 1966.

Hang up your gloves.

Get a dishwasher.

Throw in the towel too—because a dishwasher is also a dishdryer. Fact is, a dishwasher is a real heavyweight when it comes to taking work off your hands. New models even come with pre-rinse cycles to eliminate hand rinsing.

(A dishwasher also gives you a place to store dirty dishes out of sight until you're ready to wash them automatically.) Sound like a winner? Corner your appliance dealer and ask for more details. PG and E

Vietnam action claims life of Pfc. Smith, 18

Final services were held Monday for Pfc. Matthew Edward Smith, 18, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Brown, 2601 LaSalle Ct.

Smith was killed in action in Vietnam last week. A member of the Westmont High School class of 1968, Smith was president of the senior class and was an all-around varsity athletic letterman, having earned two football letters and starred in baseball and track. He was captain of the football team and president of the Block "W" Club.

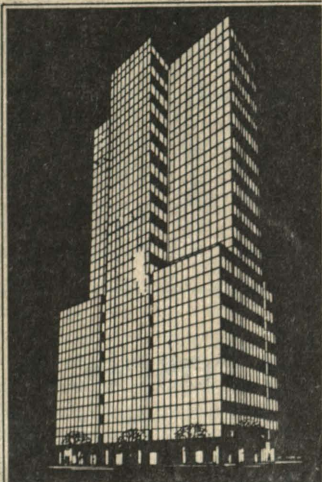

Smith, who had been overseas just six weeks, was killed by enemy small arms fire while on patrol in the Quang Trih sector. He was attached to the 2nd Battalion, 4th Marine Regiment of the Third Marine Division. He enlisted August 5, 1968.

Besides his parents he leaves three brothers, Buddy Brown and Randy Brown, both of San Jose and Pfc. William P. Smith, stationed with the U.S. Army at Ft. Campbell, Kentucky. Other survivors include two sisters, Misses Sherry Lyn Smith and Julie Dawn Brown, both of San Jose and his grandmother, Mrs. Julia Brown of Mt. View.

Services were under the direction of the Darling, Fischer & Faber's Chapel of the Hills, Los Gatos with interment in the Los Gatos cemetery.

Mom Checks Kitchen "Quotient"

BUILT-IN COOKING EQUIPMENT MAKES the difference in this kitchen, giving the room a bright uncluttered appearance. The double wall oven is complemented by a surface cooking unit that includes a built-in barbecue well. Suggested by Hotpoint.

EASY UPKEEP materials decorate newest kitchens. Here, wallpaper teams with window shades and valances laminated in matching fabrics. All have been treated to newest finishes.

Spanish Inspired

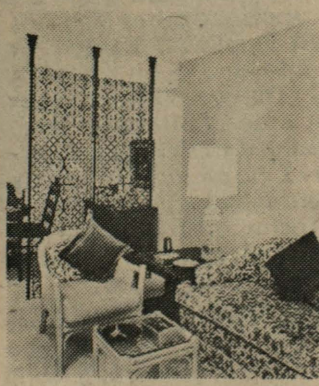

One of many factors that have made Mediterranean design such a lasting favorite of both homemakers and decorators is its all-encompassing character.

Unlike some decorating styles, which practically dictate which fabrics and finishes may be used, Mediterranean can involve an enormous variety of colors, materials and design elements.

Versatility of the various Mediterranean moods is illustrated in decorative space dividers by the Galway division of Burwood Products Company.

There are several such dividers inspired by the magnificent wrought iron grillwork of Old Spain.

Romantic Alhambra, Castille and Seville panels and matching pressure poles are available in a variety of finishes to

SEVILLE and Castille panels and Corinthian poles by Galway combine to form decorative divider for dining area. (NFS) compliment almost any decor or color scheme.

The divider systems are easily installed and won't mar floors or ceilings. (NFS)

Lighting Gives Lift To Exterior Outlook

The importance of first impressions is something everyone understands. And most people make a special effort to put their best foot forward when meeting others at work, school or social gatherings.

The home makes first impressions, too—on neighbors, friends and passersby. In the daytime those impressions depend largely on the style, color of the house and landscaping around it.

This is not so at night, when the first impression the home makes after dark is wholly dependent on lighting.

Good outdoor lighting, not only at the front door but on steps, walks and driveway as well, welcomes nighttime visitors, makes their approach safer—and discourages prowlers, too.

If the home has a broad, long driveway, post lanterns spaced about 25 feet apart are effective. Post lanterns are available in traditional, continental and contemporary styles, and better ones feature wide top reflectors which direct glare-free light toward the ground where it is needed.

If, however, the approach is modest, lower "mushroom-type" reflectors will light the driveway and walkway adequately, and will effectively conceal the light source from visitors' eyes.

If the walk is right next to the house, louvered or lens-type fixtures mounted on the house surface will provide necessary light for the walk.

And if a long flight of steps leads up to the front door, mounting similar fixtures at the sides of step risers, eight feet apart (or less), with a 6-to-25-watt bulb in each, gives an attractive lighting solution.

At the front door itself, two wall brackets, 66 inches above the floor, one at each side of the door, with a 40-watt bulb in each, are a better source of light than one fixture centered above the entrance. Entranceway fixtures, like post lanterns, come in a variety of styles to blend with different home designs.

And as a small added courtesy, a set of lighted house numbers, at least three inches high and a half-inch wide, can be mounted on the house so they are legible from the street at night.

POST LANTERNS, doorway lights and even a set of lighted house number beside the front door combine to produce first impression of warmth and hospitality. Lighting suggestions by General Electric.

Swim Pool Safety Starts in Spring

For some 4,000,000 American homeowners, a new job has been added to traditional springtime home improvement chores—getting the family pool in shape for the summer season.

Assuring pool safety begins with springtime precautions, to eliminate common hazards and to make sure the proper equipment is at poolside to cope with any accidents that may occur.

Dr. John Henderson, medical director of Johnson & Johnson, gives several safety suggestions.

In addition to normal pool maintenance steps, the following checklist is recommended:

1. All electrical connections should be properly grounded with special attention given to filter motor and lighting. Extension cords should be checked for proper gauge, and electrical outlets repaired.

2. Repair of loose or broken concrete, tile or wood in deck areas is important. If there is a grassy area around pool, it should be free of stones, pebbles and other debris which might injure people emerging barefoot.

3. Wooden decks, benches should be sanded and refinished to avoid splinters; pool ladder checked to make sure all rungs are tight, properly finished and free of splinters.

4. If pool is left filled with water over the winter, it must be treated properly to be sure it is fit for swimming. It will probably need "shock" chlorination, and treatments with an algicide and water clarifiers.

Care should be used when using these chemicals, and package directions should be followed to the letter.

When the swimming season starts, every pool should have four basic items of safety equipment: an adequate supply of flotation devices such as rings and jackets, a shepherd's crook long enough to reach halfway across the pool, a comprehensive first aid kit and a Resusitube Airway for fast, effective artificial respiration.

One basic rule a pool owner must enforce rigorously is that all non-swimmers—no matter what their age—wear some type of flotation device anywhere near the pool. It can mean the difference between pleasure and peril.

A shepherd's crook, or even a long bamboo pole, should be at every poolside. It is used to assist swimmers in trouble.

It is better to extend a pole to a bather in trouble and pull him to safety, rather than to dive in and risk being dragged down by an hysterical person. The shepherd's crook has an added advantage—its curved hook can be used to snare a person's body, if needed.

Minor cuts, scrapes and scratches are inevitable during pool fun. These should be cared for promptly with basic supplies on hand in a well-equipped first aid kit.

Should an immersion emergency occur, fast, effective resuscitation can save a life. Currently, the most widely recommended method of resuscitation is mouth-to-mouth rescue breathing.

The Resusitube Airway—an S-shaped plastic tube—speeds this technique.

Summer wedding set

The betrothal of Janet Burton to Steven P. Boyd was announced recently by Janet's parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. R. Burton of 4274 Colombo Dr. at a recent family party given at their home.

Janet attended Campbell High School where she served as head bell girl in the Campbell Marching Band, and she was also a lifetime honor society member. Miss Burton was a Y.F.U. exchange student to Holland in 1967. She is presently attending the University of Santa Clara.

Steven is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Orville Knudsrig of Billings, Montana and attended schools in Montana before enlisting in the U. S. Army. He is stationed at Ft. Ord in aviation radio systems as a specialist fifth class.

August 2, 1969 has been set as the wedding date by the betrothed couple.

JANET BURTON

EXCELLENT ENTERTAINMENT—Katie Lavender, left, as Kate in "Kiss Me Kate" and Dick Vine in the role of Petruccio, are playing to capacity audiences in the Saratoga Federated Drama Group's spring production at the Saratoga Civic Theatre through May 10. The realistic stage fight between the two, subtly brings the play within the play to a dramatic height and the two excellent voices compliment each other in an evening of entertainment well worth watching. Vine resides in Campbell as does the director, Paul Gurev. Tickets and information at 356-3853 or 867-3455. Dick's wife, Jo Ann Vine, gives a spritely performance in the role of Bianca.

MUSIC FOR SPRING—Martin Lee, Steve Pattison and Jeri

Pattison will be heard in the Campbell High School Spring

Concert Friday evening, April 25.

Judy Howland plans children art classes

Judy Howland, who has been instructing Adult Education art classes for the last seven years, is going to branch out this summer and open classes for young children, ages 7 to 11.

Judy feels that the children of this age are capable of handling oil paints, but are rarely given the opportunity to do so. Classes will be held once a week from 9:30 to 12 noon from June 24 to July 29, at the Campbell Country Woman's Club, 274 E. Campbell Ave. and First.

Other summer classes which Judy will instruct this summer include an adult women's class in acrylics starting June 25 and a teen-age class for boys and girls between the ages of 12 to 17, starting June 26. All classes will be held at the Campbell Country Woman's Club.

Pre-registration will be held May 10 from 10 to 12 a.m. at the Woman's Club. Children must be accompanied by a parent and are requested to bring art work samples. Mrs. Howland may be reached at 377-3937 for further information.

NEIGHBORHOOD 15 TROOP 878

Cadette Troop 878 recently enjoyed a four-day outing at a ranch just north of the Pinnacles. Camping in a completely primitive area, the girls were able to lash pine branches into tables, dug fire-pits and prepared their own meals.

The 12 and 13 year old girls were caught in a severe downpour and maintained a good camp site with an efficiency worthy of the training of their leaders, Mrs. Roxie Clapes and Mrs. Herbert Blake. Helping to teach young girls responsibility and development of new skills is a primary function of Girl Scouting.

EASTER TROOPS

One of the most rewarding things in Scouting is doing something for others — not because you're asked but because you "care".

Brownie Troops 204, 498, 385 and Jr. Troop 237 of Marshall Lane School; Troop 214 San Tomas Brownies and the Cub Scouts of Pack 505 Den 6 combined their efforts to make Easter a little happier for the children at the Santa Clara County Children's Shelter.

The Scouts used cottage cheese cartons, sprayed with bright spring colors and colorful contact paper, attached plastic handles and made a total of 107 Easter baskets for the children.

The baskets were filled with assorted candies and a chocolate bunny, wrapped in cellophane and tied with a gay, brightly colored ribbon.

Needless to say, the 107 children at the Shelter were happy these Scouts cared.

SPORTS SHOW

Mrs. Mary Ann Hazlett, 1916 Villarita Dr.; Mrs. Doris Kuster, 1880 Villarita Dr. and Mrs. Kay Egbert, 1383 El Solvo Dr., are three of the active committee members who will be working at the Sport and Home Show being sponsored by the Leprechaun Chapter of the Children's Home Society this weekend in the Fiesta Hall at the Santa Clara County Fairgrounds.

Proceeds from the show will go to the Children's Home Society, the largest private adoption agency in California. Show opens Friday, April 25, at 6 p.m.

SCHOLARSHIP FUND

A pancake breakfast for the benefit of the Martin Luther King, Jr. scholarship fund will be held Sunday, April 27 at the West Valley College Saratoga campus, 14000 Fruitvale Ave., sponsored by the West Valley College Faculty Assn.

Elementary honor orchestra presents second concert April 29

The Campbell Elementary School Honor orchestra will present a second concert Tuesday, April 29 at 7:30 p.m. in the Campbell school cafeteria.

The honor orchestra is made up of the better performing students from all of the schools in the district who are able to spend the extra rehearsal time required and who are able to meet the standards of the audition.

The orchestra rehearses for over an hour each week under the direction of Wallace Johnson. Personnel manager and assistant director is Ed Tonini.

The orchestra is given the opportunity to play and hear music on a higher level of difficulty than is usual at the individual school level and also to meet with other students who are more serious in their musical efforts.

Playing in the quintet will be Kim LaFollette, flute; Debbie Carpenter, clarinet; Barbara Olson, clarinet; Robert Johnson, bassoon and Gary Massingill, French horn.

Andy Scott will be the trumpet soloist accompanied by Janet Tension and Kim LaFollette the flute soloist accompanied by Dorothy Marchesi.

Section leaders are Elaine Marchesi, concert mistress, violins; Sara Aürich, second violin; Julie Mommsen, viola; Pamela Falke, cello; Lynn Smith, string bass; Kim LaFollette, flute; Bob Johnson, first clarinet; Barbara Olson, second clarinet; Andy Scott, first trumpet; Carter Fischer, second trumpet; Joseph De Mar, trombone; Jeff Werner, first French horn; Debbie Sayre, second French horn; Brian Nomof, percussion and Jann Rhodes, tympani.

The program for the evening will include The Dance of the Tumblers by Rimsky-Korsakoff; the Adagio and Rondo by Mozart featuring the quintet.

STRINGS WILL SING—Michelle Zelmar, Darlene Marshall, Darlene Pattison,

Marilyn Wen, Darlene Marshall, Becky Murphy, Martin

Lee, Helen Burnham and John Rowland are in the violin section playing in the Campbell High School Spring Concert Friday evening, April 25.

A LOVELY MELODY—Playing in the Spring Concert to be presented Friday evening by Campbell High School are violinists Darlene Marshall,

Marilyn Wen, Michelle Zelmar and Darlene Lupian.

with "Charlie" Gubser

Somewhere recently I heard this statement: "The American people are drowning in their own sewage." The statement was obviously phrased for its dramatic effect, but with each passing year it becomes more truth than poetry.

Man is considered to be a thinking animal and as such has learned that his own existence is entirely dependent upon the maintenance of an ecological balance on this planet. Without vegetation which breathes carbon dioxide, man's vital oxygen supply would be lost and without other forms of interdependent animal and plant life man could not live.

Yet man is an unthinking animal who ignores the effect of his own waste material on the ecological balance so vital to his own existence. The magnificent Great Lakes, carved by prehistoric glaciers which provided transportation, recreation and food to many Americans, are now polluted, stench ridden, eyesores. They have become the world's largest cesspools.

Some scientists have suggested that Lake Erie is already a dead lake. Heavy concentrations of heavier than water chemicals cover the lake bottom and cannot be flushed out. It is now virtually incapable of supporting life.

In 1905 the depth of Lake Michigan was 113 feet, but today it is ten feet shallower because of the millions of tons of junk and toxic material humans have poured into it.

The City of San Francisco with its inadequate sewage treatment is polluting the world's largest natural harbor. Magnificent Lake Tahoe is gradually becoming polluted with sewage. Across the nation major cities are failing in their obligation to treat sewage before dumping it into flowing streams.

In a survey conducted by the General Accounting Office of the operation of twenty sewage treatment plants in two states, only three met minimum requirements. One treatment plant was shut down with no operator available and had been shut down for more than a month.

This national disgrace clearly indicates the need for drastic action. Though I am usually an advocate of local initiative and control, this problem has become too great. This is why Congress recently passed a bill almost unanimously which will strengthen federal water pollution control, tighten regulations regarding oil spillage and sewage from boats, ships and offshore oil operations, and place further controls on drainage from mines and pollution of lakes and navigable streams.

The bill further provided for the training of individuals in the design and operation of waste treatment works and provided grants to local communities to stimulate more effective and efficient treatment of waste.

This bill was supported by every Republican and every Democrat of the House Committee on Public Works after an extensive study of the problem. It passed the House of Representatives by the overwhelming vote of 392 yeas to a single nay. I supported the bill in the belief that unless drastic action is taken now, the dramatic statement which began this column could become absolute truth.

Accident wrecks police car at expressway

A Campbell police car driven by Officer Paul Schommer, 38, was totally wrecked Thursday night while the officer was pursuing two sports cars suspected of "drag racing", according to the police report.

The police car hit a station wagon broadside at the Winchester-San Tomas Expressway. According to the police, the station wagon driven by Melvin Palmer, 18, of Santa Clara, had turned onto the expressway just after the two sports cars, that were being pursued by Schommer, had passed him.

The Palmer car was also reported totally damaged. The driver suffered a broken arm as a result of the accident.

Passengers with Schommer at the time of accident were two West Valley College students Barbara Lynn, 18, and Brent Sumsion, 20, who were participating in the Campbell Police Department citizens education program.

It was the first accident involving "citizen" riders in the two years the program has been operating, according to Police Chief John Morgan.

Sumsion is confined to Kaiser Hospital with internal injuries and Miss Lynn suffered a black eye and abrasions.

Colonial Savings plans to start construction on new office soon

Construction will soon start on the impressive new home for Colonial Savings & Loan Association at 1510 S. Winchester Blvd. (at the edge of the Campbell city limits), according to James W. Schafer, manager of the local office.

During the construction period, offices of the Association will continue to be maintained in the special mobile home adjacent to the building site.

The new building, fronting on Winchester, will carry out the overall theme of the Colonial House apartment complex on Colonial Way to the rear of the new structure. The building will consist of two stories, initially with a total of 6,000 square feet, with provision for future expansion to 8,000 square feet.

Among the features of the new structure will be a large safe deposit box vault and a tellers area in the center portion which will be two stories high. Entrances will be provided on all four sides of the building, Schafer said.

Schafer also indicated that a "Community Hall" would be included in the plans and would be available for meetings of local business and social groups.

Colonial Savings & Loan Association was founded in 1952 at its present home office at 98 West Portal Ave. in San Francisco. The founder, Desmond G. Kelly, still continues as president and managing officer.

Although their new offices here were opened this past January, Colonial has served

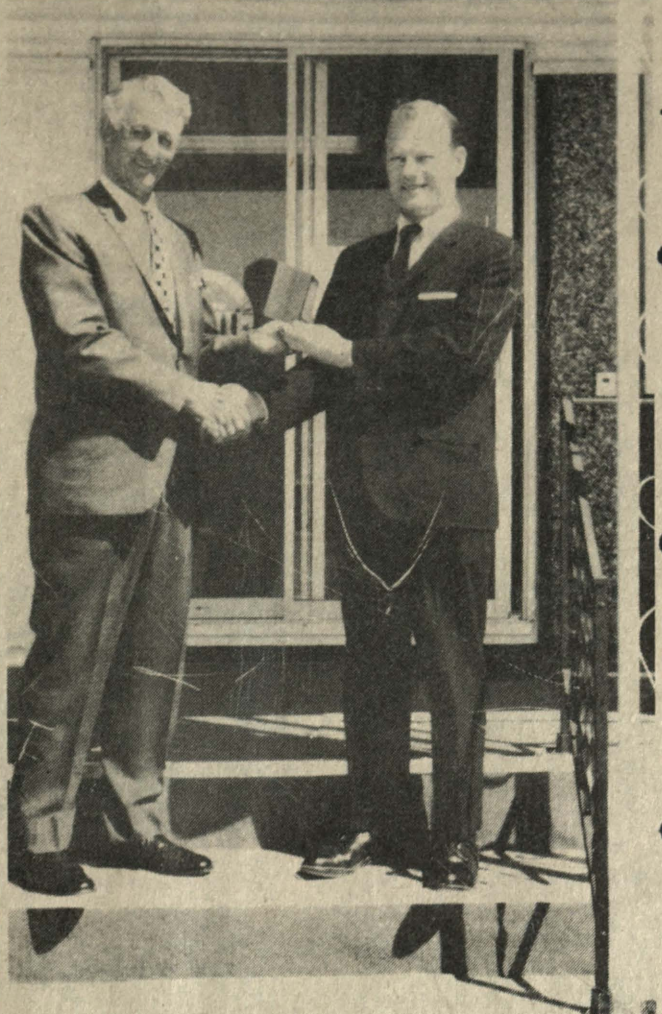

Santa Clara county for many years through its loan department. According to officials, over 50% of its loan portfolio is located in Santa Clara county.

Colonial was recently purchased by Daniel K. Ludwig, who also purchased Systematic Savings & Loan Association of Daly City and Fremont Savings & Loan Association of Fremont.

Ludwig is also negotiating for the purchase of another local Savings & Loan Association which has two offices. Applications are pending to merge the three into Colonial, which, if approved, will give Colonial a total of seven offices with total assets of more than $107 million.

In addition, Ludwig has also acquired Claremont Savings & Loan Association, Woodland Savings & Loan Association and University Savings & Loan Association, all located in the Los Angeles area. These associations have been merged into one association which is now named Colonial Savings & Loan Association of the South.

Schafer, who heads the local offices of Colonial is a native of California, and is a descendant of two pioneer California families in the Modesto area.

the local Colonial Savings offices, for having been the first person to open an account at the new local office.

Prying burglar robs church

An armed robber made off with $143 from Martin Gas Station, 851 E. Hamilton Ave. early Friday morning.

The robber entered the service station office, and after showing attendant Michael Groves, 20, the hand gun, demanded all of the money. Michael handed over the available cash to the bold bandit who made no attempt at disguise.

The Congregational Church of Campbell, 400 W. Campbell Ave., was burglarized late Sunday night. Entry was made by prying open one of the south office doors after unsuccessful attempts were made to open the two north office doors, as indicated by pry marks on the doors. The secretary's desk was pried open and $29.81 removed. The work room within the office was also entered and indications were that a thorough search of the premises had been made, but no office machines were removed or destroyed.

The same evening the Crown Billares, 1740 Winchester Blvd., suffered an approximate $150 loss when apparently a burglar hid inside of the building after closing hours and then pried open all of the machines coin boxes.

MILLION BONES

More than half a million bones and plant fossils representing more than 200 species have been recovered from the La Brea tar pits in Los Angeles.

HERE WE GO AGAIN!—Maurishka, Miss Greater Los Angeles Press Club, reminds everyone that daylight saving time starts at 2 a.m., April 27. She's shown here having moved her clock ahead one hour.

WINGS OF GOLD

Navy Lieutenant (junior grade) Pressley B. Mothorn, son of Mr. and Mrs. Pressley Mothorn of 172 Echo, Campbell, and husband of the former Miss Mary K. Hornyak of San Carlos, Calif., received his "Wings of Gold" as a designated Naval Aviator and Helicopter Pilot at the Naval Air Station Ellyson Field, Pensacola, Fla.

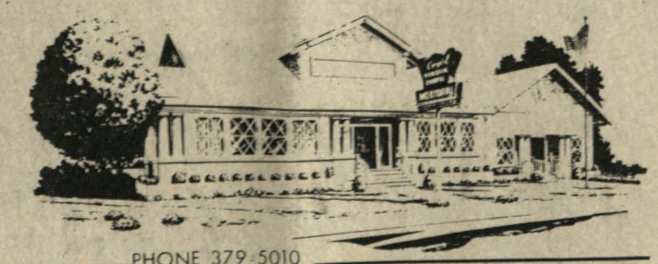

VISION CARE

Joanne Ward, 1220 Peggy Ave. and Shirley Toucer, 925 Linda St., both West Valley College students, attended the recent sixth annual visitation at the University of California School of Optometry in Berkeley. The girls were among the contingent of high school and college students from Santa Clara County who are all interested in a career in health professions.

TRASH PICKUP FRIDAY—Residents within the city limits of Campbell will be able to get a free trash pickup this Friday, April 25 as a service of Green Valley Disposal. Trash must be placed on the curb by 7 a.m. in boxes or containers that one man can carry. Trimmings must be bundled in four-foot lengths.
